

National-Louis University
Class Make-up Study Guide – Smithsonian Museum Visit

1. Explore the Age of Information Gallery (first floor, near the Constitution Avenue entrance to the American History Museum). Work Define this “age of information” based upon what you saw and experienced in the gallery. Provide specific examples of artifacts and displays.

2. Reflect on the history and timelines for technological developments included in the Age of Information exhibit and select the four events in history that that you feel have had the greatest impact on society. Justify your selections.

3. Reflect on the technological developments in this Age of Information Exhibit and select the four technologies in the exhibit that have had the greatest impact on business. Justify your selections.

4. Submit a paper that addresses the above issues.